Financial Exploitation: Avoid Being a Victim

Wednesday, August 29 • 2 pm

Piedmont Crossing Unity Place, 100 Hedrick Drive, Thomasville, NC

Financial exploitation is one of the fastest growing forms of abuse of seniors and adults with disabilities. Financial abuse can take many forms ranging from investment scams, bogus lottery schemes, credit card misuse and forged checks. The National Center on Elder Abuse reports that 90 percent of the perpetrators of financial abuse are family members or people the victims know well.

The Honorable April C. Wood, district court judge in Judicial District 22b of North Carolina, serving Davidson and Davie counties will share risk factors of financial exploitation and how to avoid being a victim. Join Piedmont Crossing for this meaningful discussion on financial abuse.

Register your attendance by contacting Blair White at 336-474-3605 or bwhite@uchas.org.

Piedmont Crossing is an active living community located on a charming 61-acre site in Thomasville, NC.
